

ANU Indonesian Project Research Grants Workshop

November 5, 2014

Lecture Theatre 2, Hedley Bull Centre, ANU

DRAFT PROGRAM

9–9.15am	Registration and coffee
9.15–9.30am	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction Indonesia Project• Research Grants program and introduction grant winners
9.30–11am	SESSION 1 <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Life and death in a dynamic emerging economy: firm level evidence from Indonesia Haryo Aswicahyono (CSIS), Hal Hill (ANU)2. Horticulture commercial firm development in Indonesia Ronnie Natawidjaja (Padjadjaran University), Anoma Ariawardana (University of Queensland)
11-11.30am	Coffee break
11.30am-1pm	SESSION 2 <ol style="list-style-type: none">3. Social efficiency through internalization of endogenous external costs in intensive vegetable production Joko Mariyono (University of Pancasakti), Tom Kompas (ANU)4. Local milk for local schools: promoting food security by linking school milk programs (SMPs) with dairy industry development in Indonesia Nunung Nuryartono (Bogor Agricultural University), Risti Permani (University of Adelaide):
1–2pm	Lunch
2–3.30pm	SESSION 3 <ol style="list-style-type: none">5. Ecological assessment of coral reef fish assemblages across the Spermonde archipelago (Southern Sulawesi) to inform locally sustainable reef management initiatives Aidah Husain (Hasanuddin University), Naomi Gardiner (James Cook University)6. Flood modelling and simulations involving rainfall: case studies in Indonesia Sudi Mungkasi (Sanata Dharma University), Gwyn Roberts (ANU)
3.30– 4pm	Coffee break
4–5.30pm	SESSION 4 <ol style="list-style-type: none">7. Understanding vulnerability post tsunami and conflict in Aceh Nulwita Maliati (University of Malikulsaleh), John McCarthy (ANU)8. Building community resilience after the Merapi volcano disaster: a case study of state and private schemes for economic livelihood recovery initiatives in Central Java Poppy Ismalina (Gadjah Mada University), Minako Sakai (UNSW)
5.30–5.35pm	CLOSE